

AVISENA HEALTHCARE SDN BHD
(Company No: 20301018445(1048278-D))
TENDER NOTICE

Avisena Healthcare Sdn Bhd (“AVISENA”) invites interested and qualified medical equipment suppliers with relevant experience to submit tenders for the supply of a unit of Advanced Integrated Camera System & a unit of Indocyanine Green (ICG) Telescope for the Operation Theatre at Avisena Women’s and Children’s Specialist Hospital.

The successful company shall provide an Advanced Integrated Camera System and Indocyanine Green (ICG) Telescope designed to support minimally invasive surgical procedures and enhance intraoperative visualization in the operation theatre. The system must emphasize high-definition imaging capability, fluorescence imaging, functionality for ICG visualization, and seamless integration with existing operating theatre equipment. The proposed solution shall comply with relevant international standards such as FDA and CE marking, as well as MSQH and JCI accreditation requirements. It should also incorporate features for infection control, radiation safety, system integration, and secure data management to ensure audit readiness.
